ALRB PUBLIC MEETING LEGISLATIVE REPORT

DATE: October 12, 2022

TO: Agricultural Labor Relations Board

FROM: Todd M. Ratshin, Chief Board Counsel

This report provides updates on legislative activity affecting the Agricultural Labor Relations Act or the Agricultural Labor Relations Board since the Board's September 28, 2022 meeting.

Assembly Bill No. 2183 (Stone – D)

This bill was introduced on February 15, 2022, and amended on March 24. The bill was approved by the Assembly on May 25 by a 49-22 vote and ordered to the Senate. The bill was amended in the Senate on August 22. On August 29, the bill was approved by the Senate by a 26-10 vote, with the Assembly concurring in the Senate amendments by a 55-18 vote. The Governor signed the bill on September 28.

The bill makes a number of amendments to the ALRA. The bill requires employers to register with the ALRB on an annual basis if they will choose to abide by certain labor peace compact obligations with respect to union organizing efforts. If an employer agrees to a labor peace compact, a union may be elected as the employees' bargaining representative using a mail-voting election process. For an employer that does not agree to a labor peace compact, a union may be certified as the employees' bargaining representative based on the submission of authorization cards from a majority of the employees. In addition, the bill authorizes the board to assess civil penalties against employers who commit unfair labor practices, and requires an employer to post a bond as a condition to appealing any order involving an award of monetary relief.

The full text of the bill, and further information regarding it, is available at:
<https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billNavClient.xhtml?bill\_id=202120220AB2183>

When signing the bill, the Governor also announced an agreement on clarifying language to be passed during the next legislative session.
