On June 9, 2025,¹ General Counsel filed with the Agricultural Labor Relations Board (Board) an application for special permission to appeal a ruling made by Administrative Law Judge Steven Wyllie. In his June 3 prehearing conference order, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) denied the General Counsel's motion to hold the scheduled hearing entirely virtually. The General Counsel alleges that a virtual hearing is necessary in order to assuage concerns over potential negative interactions with immigration authorities, which may persuade witnesses not to testify.

Subsequently, on June 10, Respondent United Farm Workers of America (UFW) filed with the Board an application for special permission to appeal the ALJ's June 4 denial of UFW's motion to bifurcate the hearing. The UFW claims that resolving the issue of whether its hiring hall was "exclusive" or "non-exclusive" would be outcome-determinative for roughly half of the General Counsel's complaint allegations and would thus serve judicial economy if granted.

DISCUSSION

Pursuant to Board regulation section 20242, subdivision (b), [t]he Board will consider an application for special permission to appeal only where the challenged ruling or order cannot be addressed effectively through exceptions ...". Further, after an application for special permission to appeal is filed, the Board may postpone the hearing to address the arguments of the parties. Id. at subd. (d).

The Respondents' responses to the General Counsel's request are due on June 16. The General Counsel's and Monterey Mushrooms' responses to the UFW's request are due on June 17. To provide sufficient time for the parties' responses and for the Board to review the record in this matter, it is necessary to postpone the commencement of the hearing.

ORDER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the hearing in the above case is POSTPONED from June 30, 2025 to July 8, 2025.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
