On March 6, 2020, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board (ALRB or Board) issued Premiere Raspberries, LLC (Mar. 6, 2020) ALRB Admin. Order No. 2020-05-P. On March 13, charging party United Farm Workers of America (UFW) filed a request for an extension of time to file a motion for reconsideration. The Executive Secretary granted the request. Per the granted extension of time, the UFW filed its motion for reconsideration on March 27. Although conceding the mandatory mediation and conciliation (MMC) contract between the UFW and respondent Premiere Raspberries, LLC (Premiere) may provide the appropriate measure for determining the amount of bargaining makewhole relief due the employees during the time the unimplemented MMC contract was in effect, the UFW nonetheless seeks reconsideration and urges the Board to provide that, in some cases, an unimplemented MMC contract may not provide the full measure of economic relief due.

Two weeks before the UFW filed its motion, Premiere filed a motion for reconsideration of our Administrative Order No. 2020-05-P, representing that the parties had reached a settlement covering both this case and the MMC matter (case no. 2018-MMC-002). On March 24, the Board issued its order in Premiere Raspberries, LLC (Mar. 24, 2020) ALRB Admin. Order No. 2020-06, directing the parties to submit their purported settlement to the Salinas Regional Director for approval. On March 25, two days before the UFW filed its motion, the UFW and Premiere filed a joint request for an extension of time to comply with the Board's Administrative Order No. 2020-06 to provide additional time to reduce their agreement to writing and submit it to the Regional Director.

ORDER

The Board hereby GRANTS Premiere an opportunity to respond to the UFW's motion for reconsideration in this case. Any such response must be received by the Board no later than Wednesday, April 15, 2020.
